I, _____, the undersigned, in consideration of the study, observation, experience, and opportunity obtained from the Layton City Police Department's Citizens Academy program, and being fully aware that participation in this program, which includes shooting firearms at the gun range, which allows me to accompany peace officers performing their official duties while on duty, exposes me to grave risks, including, but not limited to, property damage, personal injury and even death, which could occur in innumerable ways, including, but not limited to, automobile accidents, confrontations with alleged violators, hostage situations, random violence, vindictive arrestees, riots, and negligence by peace officers, do hereby fully release Layton City, its officers, agents, employees, and volunteers from any and all damages, injuries, liabilities, foreseen and unforeseen, known and unknown, and from all causes of action and/or claims based on State and/or Federal law that may result from my presence, involvement, and participation in this program.

I further agree to hold harmless Layton City, its officers, agents, employees, and volunteers from any and all damages, injuries and liabilities, foreseen and unforeseen, known and unknown, and from all causes of action and/or claims based on State and/or Federal law as a result of my conduct while participating in the Citizens Academy.

This release and hold harmless agreement is intended to be full and is to include any claims of my heirs, assignees, executors, administrators, and personal representatives, and that my estate is to be bound by the hold harmless agreement as well.
